

Marriage

How to nurture your relationship when raising a special needs child

The Samaritan Counseling Center is offering the second workshop in a series for parents of children with special needs.

The demands of parenting a special needs child can place strain on any marriage.

Thankfully, finding new ways to support and appreciate each other can bring new life into your relationship.

This workshop will discuss strategies for negotiating common conflicts and building mutual support, communication, and appreciation.

About The Samaritan Counseling Center of the Northwest Suburbs

The Samaritan Counseling Center of the Northwest Suburbs is a private, not-for-profit interfaith center that offers individual, couples, family and group therapy; pastoral care; coaching and consulting, and community educational services.

Date: Thursday, April 8th, 2010

Time: 7p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Location: Samaritan Counseling Center
800 Hart Road #250
Barrington, IL 60010

Questions? Contact us at (847) 382-4673
or email drlora@sccnw.org

www.sccnw.org

Counseling, Consulting & Education

About the Presenter:

Dr. Lora Wiens has a doctorate in Clinical Psychology and a Masters degree in Philosophy. She is a licensed clinical professional counselor in the state of Illinois. She sees individual adults, couples, adolescents, and children. She has been with the Samaritan Counseling Center since its opening in January of 2009.